MPF expands

The Air Force recently expanded the virtual Military Personnel Flight (MPF) to include Guard and Reserve members. This expansion provides speed and convenience for those members not stationed near a military base.

– Duty Status History: allows service members to obtain a listing of current and previous duty information, including effective dates, Air Force Specialty Codes and duty titles.

– Re-enlistment Eligibility Inquiry: allows members to see if they are eligible to re-enlist or eligible for waiver consideration.

– Selected Re-enlistment Bonus (SRB) eligibility: determines if a member is eligible for an SRB and in what zone.

– Proof of service: allows members to print their proof of service letter, a document needed by the department of veterans affairs when purchasing a home.

– Point credit history: gives members the capability to view the points awarded towards retirement.
